LESSON 9: WOOD DUCK

Indigenous Voices

Event Preparations

This class is likely longer than the attention span of some of our younger participants and there may be times when some students cannot keep up with Andrea's instructions. If at any point you find your students are getting restless or frustrated, feel free to take a break and finish the event at a later time. No need to enjoy the event all in one sitting!

About the Artist

Andrea Fritz

Andrea Fritz is a Coast Salish artist and author from the Lyackson First Nation of the Hul'qumi'num speaking Peoples on the West Coast of Canada. She learned West Coast Native art in the Victoria school district from Victor Newman (Kwagiulth).

Andrea strives to express her People's history and all our futures using her art. She focuses on animals and scenes of the West Coast of Canada and our intricate relationships with them. Andrea works in the mediums of acrylic on canvas/wood, serigraph, vector art, and multimedia. She has had numerous shows of her work including at Eagle Feather Gallery, the Place Gallery and The Outpost at Ketchikan.

Coast Salish Tales - New Beginnings

Click to Buy the Book!

New Beginnings is the first book in Andrea's Coast Salish Tales series. This story, written in the traditional Coast Salish style, includes words from the Hul'qumi'num language of the Cowichan Valley on Vancouver Island, Canada. New Beginnings is a story inspired by the replacement of a much loved tree in the Oaklands area of Victoria.
